The Morristown Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 1877.

A Word to Emigrants.

To the Edit ir of the Morristown Gazette: Are there not, in your section of coun- forks; but it is not known that only of the rhino," the proprietor said. try, a number of people who have made | the right hand is dipped into the dish | looking the tall man over, "a dinner up their minds to go West? Perhaps to Texas, Kansas, Missouri, or Nebraska? If so, allow me to say a word, through condemned to do all the hard and "I have nothing with me but a the columns of your widely circulated paper. Having traveled very extensively, and noted carefully all the advantages and disadvantages of the Western States, I have no hesitation in saying that California offers, by far, the greatest number of inducements to the

If you go to the black lands of the Trinities, the Brazos, or the Colorado, then, that you will take the chills and fever, is a foregone conclusion. Don't go to Western Texas, for it is a billious country. No fruits, no vegetables; and Texan's diet (bacon, coffee, and whisky) with both hands, are warned on ar. with the most satisfactory results." until you become long, lean, and enday- rival, and have to be very careful to erous, like he is. After a five year's avoid trouble. residence you will look as if you had My brother, once in his griffin or doubt, possesses the most delightful cli. Sir Salar Jung. from Hyderabad. mate in the world. It is neither too hot Now, my brother was a good looknor too cold. We have no sleet, no ling young fellow and took the Rasnow, no ice, except in the Sierras, and Jah's eye, who swaggering slowly up the leaves on our forest trees are now to him in the ponderous swing of his almost full grown, and the wild flowers fat legs, cons dered so dignified and are in full bloom over the bills and val- graceful by native swells, performed leys. Here you can have, from your what is the highest compliment a own planting, in three years time, an native can pay, and what is invariaabundance of apples, peaches, pears, bly paid by a well fed guest after apricots, nectarines, plums, cherries, after meat. He loudly cructated in and the fruit crop never fails. Here you can take a piece of vacant land, and with three years of steady, persevering "Ride to Khiva" as being o fashionindustry, have your house shrouded in able act in Central Asia, and by the vines and choice flowers, gathered from Kirghiz done in honor of an enter- on your rats." your carthly paradise. Many beautiful Hindoo, half fainting with horror, standing before a glass trying an flowers bloom in midwinter, and you actually ran out to his carriage, oyster over his left eye. The rats can gather fresh strawberries from your amid the sympathetic jaboering of still revel in their native freedom. sarden every month in the year. Oran- his suite, and complained to the ges, lemons, limes and olives, come to Government about it. ples, ten to tifteen years old, rent at for- you regard him as one without mon- Senate. The Ohio election will be place for him in the busy world. age yield of wine grapes is ten thouspremises at one cent. per pound. If you greenness is an importance that will be looke I for with unusual interwish to engage in the sheep or cattle business, you will find a wide field in flock of sheep, but upon his broad, prominent parties; it will be the of this State, and your stock will thrive an obscure individual into the halls ment of the Presidential question, on the natural grasses, both winter and of legislation and Congress. It was and to the policy of the new Adminsummer. If you wish to engage in the his ink-soiled fingers that placed in istration. New Hampshire spoke wheat business you can buy plenty of solemn lines the type that recounted first, but elections in New Har pshire land at a low price, and for lessons in his virtues and sent forth to the never determine any thing; it is the wheat growing, I would refer you to world his fitness and qualifications State in which voters are openly and Dr Glenn, of Colusa county, who, this of office within the gift of the peo- shamelessly bribed, and where the year cleared a hundred thousand dollars ple, and yet the poor medium, by biggest "bas" wins. When Ohio on his crop, and would have cleared a which his ambition found strength speaks in October, the first verdict

But the class of settlers which Cali- much reward! yield a handsome support for the largest glorious improvement. family, and will sell for at least ten you no fancy sketch, but a plain, unvarnished statement of facts. Information in regard to cost of coming out; price of lands, etc., will be cheerfully

J. W. REESE.

The Wrong Man.

of our sanctum by a man who was- And although he is but a trifle worse hundred tons, which condenses the for the most part opposed to it. In ted to see us on private busines. off in this world's goods than the fibres together into a firm mass, addition to this it was evident that Saul Macy, feeling the "stuffed" man's sham for you—on jes one previso." "Your name's Smith?"

"B'lieve so." I've been want'n to kill-"

We refused to listen to his scurrilous remarks, and with one gentle Smith. blow knocked him sprawling. Then we drapped on him. When we let him up he looked like he had been chewed up and spit out by a pile-

"Possibly there is some mistake about this," we said as we rolled back our sleeves to finish murdering the subject.

"Guess there is," he replied as he wiped the blood from his nose; 'ain't you the man who stole my daughter, Jerusha?"

"Great bottles! no! That was Then the wounded man arose from is sanguinary lair, offered his hand leven gone so far as to quote whole stanzas from Heine's "Buch der health and growing finely. Friday hand growing finely. Friday hand leven gone so far as to quote whole until a day or two ago were in good health and growing finely. Friday hand leven gone so far as to quote whole until a day or two ago were in good health and growing finely. Friday hand leven gone so far as to quote whole until a day or two ago were in good health and growing finely. Friday hand leven gone so far as to quote whole until a day or two ago were in good health and growing finely. Friday health and growing finely. Bill Smith down here at the corner. his sanguinary lair, offered his hand this battle unscratched, we dishke cable chanting of Geibel. and departed. Though we went to be disturbed in the midst of our ardgons editorial labors simply to go out and and kill a man who is turned into gold. In these days COLUMN THE COMPACE STATE

East Indian Customs.

I have mentioned, as in fact has lishes everything is boiled to rags, asked for a dinner. so that it can be separated by the considered an inferior member, and vance.' thus preserved exclusively as a the tall man. clean hand, is evidently the proper one to dip in the dish. When feed. a copper," remarked the landlord; ing, the polite native holds his left left hand behind him. In saluting native soldiers never salute with the are perfectly justified by the law of gry pang griped him. the land in resenting the gross and premeditated insult by knocking his tor, impressively. head off. And, in the same way, Europeans never return a native samost offensive. Officers from Euro. I have performed the feat in you will have to live on the Western pean service, accustomed to salutes many hotels throughout the country been dried upon a dry kiln. Don't greenhorn days, did so greviously go to Kansas, Missouri or Nebraska, for insult a tremendous native swell; there you will find rich lands, with but he thought he had himself been chills for you in the summer, and the insulted; though he wasn't accordflerge wintry blasts will blow you off of ling to the native idea of things. He your farms, compel you to burn your was in full "undress" "uniform-and corn for fuel, and sell what is left in the an awful young dandy he was, and spring for ten cents a bushel. Don't go is-buying some gloves at the French smoke, "let's go to business. Go to a country where you can only raise milliners' on the Mount road in Macorn or wheat, but come to a land where dras, during the visit of the Duke of you can raise successfully every fruit Edinburgh, when Madras was full of and vegetable that grows under the sun! Rajahs, Maharajahs and other tre-Come to a country which, beyond a mendous native swells, including dinner to his host by way of grace my brother's face-a custom the reader will find described by Captain Burnaby in his recently published

The Country Editor.

hundred thousand dollars more if he and his aspirations success, receives will be received from the people. In had held his wheat a few weeks longer. only thanks and oft times not that a still browier sense the Ohio com-

fornia needs most is the farmer who | We love to shake the hand of a Ohio Democrats have made 3 or 4 will take a small farm and cultivate it country editor. We find in him the stubborn and vigorous fights for the thoroughly. The most pleasing, and at true working man of the land. He greenback cause. In all the later the same time the most profitable branch | works not only with his hands, but | State conte to they have stood by of industry for the farmer of small with his brain. Under his magic the people's money. It remains to means to engage in, is the cultivation work, towns grow into cities, black- be seen who her they will keep up and drying of choice fruits for the mar- smith shops grow into foundries, and the fight. If the Ohio Democratic kets of the world. One man can plant the little bunch of cottages are trans- Convention adopts a greenback platand cultivate ten acres of raisin grapes, formed into palatial mansions. These form and nominates a representative and another ten acres in figs, almonds, changing scenes go on, and yet the of currency reform like William Allen English walnuts, prunes, plums and apri- country editor toils on as he did or Gen. Morgan for Governor, the cots, and still find that he has one third when his village was in its infancy. country wil fire up with the discusof the year for leisure or other busi- There is no reward for his work oth- sion of the money question from one ness. Twenty acres of the above fruits er than the satisfaction of knowing end to the other. There is life in and the next day shiver in the ab. in the field, will be weakqued. sence of food. He toils on, nevertown, electing ungrateful aspirants Emmet, San Benito co., Cal., March to office, and give each and every citizen a shove up the hill of life down which he is allowed to tumble.

We are not ashamed of our name into our sanctum, we feel as if we if it is Smith, but it often gets us in- were more honored than if Ben Hill

> Most of these lovely aspirants dwell on the musical gifts of the Secretary as indicating a sympathetic soul, and profess a boundless yearning after the infinite. Two or three have They are now over a month old, and pew-door, the little fellow rapped temple.

Anything Midas touched was

The Best Rat Killer.

A tall man with a nose like a Mr. Randall Believes that the muffin went into a Main street boardeverybody else, how in Mussulman ing house one day last week, and

"Owing to the general depression tingers, which were made before of business and consequent scarcity -the peechaky, or left hand, being will cost you thirty-five cents in ad-dirty work. The right band, being check on a Boston bank," observed "Checks on Boston banks aint worth

"I guess you'll have to dine more sumptionally somewhere else." "Can't I do something for my dinleft hand; in fact, if one does, you ner?" asked the tall man as a hun-

"You can pay," said the proprie-"You give me my dinner," said the tall man, "and I'll agree to lute with the left hand. It would be clean your house of every rat in it.

> The proprietor accepted the bargain as a most advantageous one to himself, and the tall man seated himself at the table, where he did fearful execution among the victuals. He finished his dinner in half an hour, picked his teeth, lit a cigar and proceeded to enjoy it. "Now then," said the proprietor, when the tall man had finished his

'Ah, yes," returned the tall man; with pleasure. Procure me a light iron bar about four feet in length and I will proceed to business."

The bar of iron was procured, and the loafers gathered around to witness the interesting proceedings. "Now begin," said the proprietor. Where will you commence first?"

"Right here," replied the ta!l man as he carefully rolled back his cuffs, spit on his hands and grasped the iron bar firmly, while the proprietor stood by, with anxiety depicted on his countenance.

"Now," said the tall man, impressively, as he slowly elevated the bar, "are you ready?" "All ready," replied the landlord,

"Then," said the tall man, "bring every country, and shaded by rare, or tainer, to show their appreciation of For the space of five minutes the feet high. If you have a taste for hored immeasurably, however, immedicelection filled the room. When it ticulture, and the cultivation of choice ately saluted with his left hand and subsided the tall man was nowhere flowers, then indeed, you will find this turned on his heel. The outraged to be seen, and the proprietor was

The Ohio Compaign

You see him on the street while ture will choose a successor to Stanhe rambles from point to point, and ley Matthew in the United States ey or brains. He reads the signs the most important political even of with the unsephisticatedness of a the Union, but it has become the first verdant youth, but beneath his in political importance. Its verdict smacks of dignity. He may look est this year. It will show the tem like some belated straggler from a per of the people toward the two generous shoulders has leaped many first important response to the setlepaign will assume importance. The and nuts will, at the end of four years, that he and he alone wrought the the old can e, and the Ohio Demoof a country editor. He lives, like ocrats desert the greenback, the Inthe preacher, upon the charities of dependents of that State will come his patrons. One day he may revel to the front, and the Democratic and widows who would like to cap ter for the maintenance of warmth the achievement of Mrs. Senator in a house than one-inch planks. It In St. Louis a little three-year- with legs in them, were planted squarely Christiancy by capturing a mature is already coming into extensive old, who is now a man, was taken against is chest, forcing him back upon as they saw Saul's silver eigar-case, and Secretary and settle up another use on account of its superier for the first time to church by the breath. "Cabinet" mansion in Washington, cheapness and excellent qualities.

pair of twins which have bodies of human form and heads of hares. very little hopes of its living.

A Milwankee fiisherman offers a

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Northern Democrats will Organize the House.

Speaker Randall and his friends appear sanguine that the delay in the settlement of the Louisiana and South Carolina difficulties has solldified their party, and already saved It from the danger of going to pieces at the extra session on the question of the organization of the House. This is jumping to a conclusion in a very hasty manner. There is time yet for a good many ups and downs in the prospects of the Democra's before the session begins. The Southern question will be kept open, and they will do all they can to preare likely, however, to be disappoinmeet the approval of moderate men | making resulted from his cogitations. pects at the present moment may element and in hostility to the Adin the situation.

How to Ruin a Son. 1. Let I im have his own way.

2. Allow him free use of money. 3. Give him full access to wicked 4. Call him to no account of his

5. Furnish him with no stated em-you will experience a most marvelous deliverance, or will have to mourn and have gone sorrowing to the

to be seen on the streets at all hours ly see, on the right of the dark street. of the day, and frequently late at night, it is to be feared that many of He saw what appeared to be a struggle beour parents have learned too welf the lesson, "how to ruin a son." No namental trees, from twenty to thirty his repast. The youngster, disgnstany great length of time to be wholwithout employment. Any young man should prefer to work for nothing and find himself, rather than con-"In the sweat of thy face shalt thou be steady, industrious, perfectly reliable, is sure to find there is a good

> A Chines Dinner. A private letter from Foochow, China, says: "The other day I was hours and a half eating with chop- | sticks and drinking samshee, which of his driver, as they saw the two vehicles in is a sort of wine distilled from rice. | advance diverging. hot, in small tea-cups. There was a great similarity in the dishes, the fins: ducks' tongues were also among the delicacies of the table. other go, " was Cohen's order, and the chase right thing was to empty and turn the cup upside down; but in a spilliquor was very strong. In the middle of the dinner, pipes were kept, for another square, in the obscurity; handed about, and during the whole entertainment the singing girls and shouted: squalled and the wind instruments bellowed hideously."

What the President said to a Delegation of Southern Republicans.

A delegation of Southern republicans from the State of Mississippi, represented by Jonathan Tarbell, who is an office holder here in one of sidewalk. crats have he opportunity to fan the the depar ments, called upon the Few know the trials and troubles spark to a blaze. If the Ohio Dem- President yesterday afternoon to those pairs of panting animals, just as the matters pertaining to his policy in general. They were kindly received revolver in land. in the luxuriance of a load of wood chances of success, with three tickets by the President, who spoke quite freely with them, the principal sub- a red muffler round his throat and a round theless, lie goes on building his Papers for Building Purposes. | Ject of conversation being the cessa-A company in Wisconsin is man- two Southern States. President "He's in the other carriage!" ufacturing sixteen tons a day of pa- Haves said that the policy of sustainper for building purposes. This pa- ing State governments with the aid Therefore when Col. Tooster comes board, massed together in rolls of proper thing to continue, and hence twenty-five to one hundred pounds, he had reached the conclusion change and generally thirty-two inches it. Besides, public opinion had that or Chief Justice Bradley had visited broad. In the mamufacturing it is it was incumbent upon him to been The other day we were called out us. We love the country editor, subjected to a pressure of several aroused upon the subject, and was poor scribe of the city we feel as if hermetically air-proof. As paper Congress would not furnish him with legs, on that small sequently warm in winter and cool in summer. It does not shrink like wood, and is not affected by heat, cold, frost or dampness. It does not burn so quick as wood, because it is hard and firm. It is much bet.

While pondering still, he heard Barney's will be supplied graits for every Chab of the kitchen, in response to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed every continue its would be able to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed every continue its would be able to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed every continue its would be supplied graits for every Chab of the kitchen, in response to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed every continue its would be supplied graits for every Chab of the kitchen, in response or, six Copies for $200 on without extra copy; post-to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed to a repeated ring. With no defined puryerself massed every continue and puryerself massed every continue and cool to use them. The fact when Broadway lights gleamed upon their route, our home-gaard smile at Moss Cohen's suspicions regarding that honest discrete. What he was about to observe— What he was about to observe— What he was about to observe din the dark, while Barney turned up the face; for that Yankee was a puzzle to him that the subscriber such as the continue and cool to use them. The Confederate looked hard in Macy's and the Army Appropriation bill showed what Congress thought. If this were the massed every continue and cool to use them. The was about to observe— What he was about to observe— What he was about to observe— What he was about to observe din the dark, while Barney turned up the face; for that Yankee was a puzzle to him their route, our home-gaard smile in the was commence with the army appropriation of the was commence with the army appropriation and commence with the army appropriation of the supplement of the cont he is one of the noblest works of is one of the worst conductors of troops to continue such a policy, and that small fellow opposite, felt glad that only "Then you're the son of a seacock ve been want'n to kill—"

We refused to listen to his season of the worst conductors of the did not have the troops be could street and to listen to his season of the worst conductors of t any other creature on earth. - Bridges sequently warm in winter and cool to use them. The failure of the their route, our home-guard smile at Moss Carl Schurz is much distressed by the number of love letters he daily receives from the enterprising maids it is hard a d firm. It is much bet.

What he was about to observe did not the first confidence is made for the first confidence in the first confidence is made for the first confidence in the first confidence in the first confidence is made for the first confidence in the first confidence is made for the first confidence in the first confidence in the first confidence in the first confidence is made for the first confidence in the first confidenc receives from the enterprising maids it is hard and firm. It is much bet, made for the payment of troops.

INVISIBLE POWER And, as the coach stopped, he thrust he head out of the window, and called out-

A. J. H. DUGANNE,

SEVEN CITIES, ETC.

"THE TENANT HOUSE," "THE

Moss Cohen got out before the New Northern Democrats hope that the Haven Railroad depot, and the carriage went on. But Moss Cohen called another carriage, of several drawn up by the carb; and before Macy's coach could turn a corvent the Southern wing of their party | ner, the Jew's driver was lashing his horses, from feeling satisfied with the con- with an order from his "fare" to keep that duct of the Administration. They carriage ahead in sight, if he drove all night at five dollars an hour.

ted. It is evidently the fixed pur- sudden resolution he had conceived, to purpose of the President to get rid of sue a course like this, was not clear to his the dual governments, before Con- own mind; but he had been brooding, for gress meets, in a way which must "stuffed" man, and the pursuit he was now of both parties. Although the prosmond merchant, with forty thousand dollars' look favorable for the schemes of the worth of his wares, in a satchel, began to Democratic portisans who hope to think himself on a goose-chase, and that he effect an organization of the House | had better be waiting for a starting train at in the interest of the "straight-out" the New Haven depot. Up the lighted thoroughfare to its junction with Sixth avenne, his carriage followed the other, until, ministration, a few weeks, or even a arriving at Thirty-third street, it turned off, few days, may make an entire change | through that dim cross-way,; and, after running about half the square, was suddenly stopped. "What's up?" demanded Cohen, his head thrust out quickly, at the open win-"Coach ahead stopped, sir," answered his

"How do you know that!" asked Cohen; I can't see a yard through this fog.' "Neither can I, sir," responded the man of instinct; "But I know'd it pulled up, because, you see, there aint nothin' passed

"Ah, indeed," said Cohen, acknowledg-Pursue either of these ways, and ing the man's light to be good, though it was only city gas-light. "Go on, then, at a moderate rate, and pass the other coach." "All right, sir," replied the voice, out of over a debased and ruined child, the fog above; and the carriage wheels moved Thousands have realized the result. at a trot, Moss Cohen keeping a sharp lookout at the window. Almost immediatehowever, he felt his vehicle change direction, slightly, barely avoiding contact From the number of the idle boys | with two coaches, abreast, as he could plain-

He saw more than two coaches, in that tween several figures, standing on the ground, between those two vehicles; and ugh he heard not a sound, and caught no gleam of any weapon, the sharp-eyed Hebrew was convinced that "foul play" was going on. Moss Cohen's first impulse was to check his driver, and leap out, revolver in hand, to tract the habit of chronic idleness. Arsenal would be in sight at Seventh ave-There is no escape but at a much | nue, and aid might be summoned from the greater cost, from the divine edict; military there. Nevertheless, he felt those his best plan, therefore, was to reconnoitre eat bread, till thou return unto the them, while he despatched the driver for ground." The young man known to police or soldiers. Acting on this resolve, he stopped his coach again, and got out on

Hardly was his foot down, however, than he heard the rattle of wheels, and became aware of a movement to the rear, by those he was parsuing. Instantly he climbed to the box-seat, and bade his driver follow. Again the wheels spun, and in a couple of minutes, their team was hard upon the hindmost invited to a Chinese dinner. It was coach, just crossing Broadway. And here a most wanderful undertaking -thir- the two fugitive coaches separated, one keepty-nine courses, and sitting for three ing the line of thirty-third street, the other urged at full speed, ap Broadway. "Which is our man?" demanded Cohen

"Yonder's the conch, but there's nary round hat on that feller," replied the keeneyed young man whose full face Cohen, praicipal being porkfat and garlie. could now remark, under Broadway lights, We had bird's-nest soup and sharks' as an intelligent one. "There's been a swap of tiles, or a swap of ribbons.1 "Keep this coach in sight, and let the

After every dish the host pledges continued up Broadway, both teams at a you in a cup of samshee, and the speed, "cordin' to regulation," as the keen-eyed youth remarked. Out Broadway - and Moss Cohen's horses manifestly the best; for, though they were ing the contents under the table-a held in more than once, they overtook the Broadway, into Seventh arenne, near Fortysecond street. Neck and neck the two teams and then Moss Cohen leveled his revolver,

" Hold your horses, or I'll put a bullet through thom! And, as if in response to this during man-date, a yell sounded within the other carringe, and a crash of glass succeeded, as an armi was dashed through the window. summons reached him; and then, as the noise of breaking glass followed, pulled up his horses with a jerk, and in an instant scrambled from his seat, and disappeared upon the "I thought we were on the track!" exclaimed Moss Cohen, as he alighted between talk over the Southern affairs and other carriage-door was forced open, and a "Nary Macy," replied an individual, with ject of conversation being the cessa. hat on; "It's me; them copper-heads has 'Heavens!" exclaimed Cohen, in dismay. "Yes, sir," answered the driver in a round at; "They chloroformed both on us; but I ducked under this here red muffler and sleved bossum.

CHAPTER XXV.

When Moss Cohen's friendly face disap peared, as the carriage volled away from it, You write your billy doo, and I'll tote it front of him fly up, as if bitten by a snake; and the next instant a pair of heavy boots, of "down East."

family, and buttoned in to the pew. Then a peculiar smell pervaded the coach, which was near the pulpit. Reach- and, with the thought of ether in his mind, and apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and, apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach, and the coach apparently satisfied that no scheme of the coach apparently satisfied that no sche Patterson, N. J. is agog over a ing the sermon, the minister took air of twins which have bodies of unan forn and heads of hares.

The definition of the minister took his mouth and apparently satisfied that he scheme of a large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but a large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but a large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but a large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, ungainly, but at large sponge was applied to his mouth and escape was mediated his form, and applied to his hand.

minute to get into a sober enough ter replaced his knees at a lower angle,

"Driver, open the door; man in here's

cleverly; for as the upsuspecting driver of | door outside, he went to the open wholew. Saul's carriage opened its door, to let out the stuffed ruffian and his "pal," two more fians jumped out of another coach, at window of some high-roofed tenement the curb-stone; and, while one pair took charge of Macy's unconscious person, another brace "chloroformed" the wearer of that red muffler, under shelter of which he contrived to "play 'possum," as he was bundled into his own vehicle; to be subsequently rescued by Moss Cohen in mistake

As for Saul Macy, he was so thoroughly chloroformed," that he knew nothing after smelling ether, until he recovered sensations under a strong odor of whiskey, and found | cover "power" in that note to Susie. himself lying, in his water-proof coat, on a narrow bedstead, in a shabby-looking chamber, lit by a single gas jet, which showed him a few articles of dilapidated bed-room furni-ture, a carpetless floor, and a men in his shirt sleeves, sitting by an open window,

A dull pain in the head, and a nausea in the throat, recalled at once his experience in the coach; and he had no difficulty in concluding that he was now a prisoner under guard of that "hang-dog" looking fellow with a pipe of peace in his mouth. and a revolver of strife in a belt which held his nether garments up, "Hollo!" hailed Macy, when he had considered the "situation. "Hollo! yourself," was the response, which did not seem very repellant; so the home-guard pursued his line of discourse,

"Where am 1?" inquired i.e. "Where your're gwine to stay, Vank," was the rejoinder; and that epit. et " 'ank" satisfied Saul of one thing-that an emigrant from "Confederate States" was on guard over him. With this conviction, came odd surmises as to how many such grants" there might be in New York city that night, and whether they were strong enough to stand guard over New York generally

For the paragraphs he had perused a few hours before, in the evening paper, might be significant of events that, in a single day, perhaps, would make the friends of "Stars and Bars' more potent than the friends of "If I'm to stay here, and you to smoke,

I'll make a bargain with you," quoth Saul "Well," drawled his guard-" 'propel," Yank."

"Lay aside that Dutch pipe, and take a good Spanish eigar," said the "Yank." He produced, as he spoke, the full cigarse which poor Susie had enrefully placed in a breast-pocket of his water-proof, so as to be "handy" for her home-guard on post. ed stories repeated by an excited crowd, in the black bear and his family live Well, Yank," said the Confederate, that he felt there was no immediate help "That yer's human talk." And resting his for any prive person, in presence of such meerschaum on a pine table, where was a public danger. black bottle of whiskey, and a glass balf full of the same concoction; which he drain- be bethought him of Macy's family, and ed, before walking over to Macy, who sat ordered the driver to make speed for his on the bed, with his silver eigar-case open. | own neighborhood, A couple of stars soon blazing on the ends of their cigars, the smokers saw no sa Broadway. Cohen had consulted his globe bars to conversation.

"This yer's a peart eigar-case, sir," remarked the sentinel, turning it over in his "Solid silver, I believe," returned Saul and found himself minus his woven silver ourse, a present from Amelia, which, with had been taken from him while he swooned. "Lost anything, sir?" inquired the guard, who, with that prime "Havana" in is mouth, and the silver case in hand, felt uite respectful toward his prisoner. 'Only a trifle," answered Saul, nonchalently-"My silver purse had forty or fifty

"You must be a rich man!" remarked the Confederate, who, in fact, knew nothing valuables having been advoitly abstracted Hich enough to pay a thousand dollars

"Can't talk turkey to me," said the guard. "I'm 'spousible for your keepin,'

"Suppose I give you a thousand dollars to earry a note to my house, sir?" queried "That's tall talk," observed the Confed-"Who'd pay damages if you fotchcharge with a pair of gimlet eyes; but I'd give a thousand rather than my wife | ed the Hebrew should be uneasy about me. Do you know why I am kidnapped?" o git ye out o' harm's way, so I'm persund-d," replied the guard. "Agree to al me that ver lone hand, soon's you git safe out o' this yer hole, and I'll tote your nessage tomorrow morning." "I'll do better that that," said Macy. 'If you'll deliver a note to my wife this ight, and bring back an answer, I'll give on an order on ber for a thousand dollars.

n idshe'll pay it, sure ;—and you may keep that silver cigar-case," he added, as he marked those bend-like eyes on the silver

ing trade." "I mean trade, sir," replied Saul. "Get me writing materials; take a note to my ife, and you'll be a thousand dellars rich-"You're peart," said the Confederate; I've heern tell of invisible ink that you jes

"Get a pencil, then, and let me write. If there's anything you fear in my note, Jon't take it—that's all." Saul Macy blew cioud; and his guard went to the whiskey bottle and filled his tumbler. "Take a glass o' wine, sir?" he inquired,

"No, thank you," answered Saul; and The Confederate eyed that silver cigarcase, still closely grasped, and sat down again to smoke. Presently he said-"There'll be plenty o' thousand-dollar greenbacks turnin' ap for us fellers, out yer in New York," he observed. "And plenty of you fellows with your toes turned up," returned the Union man.

"Maybe so," rejoined the Confederate. "Tell you what, Yank; your're human.

"rich" specimen confounded his "notions"

But the small eyes, which had glistened the enshion, and almost depriving him of | shifted in a restless way as the captive made | that offer of "a thousand dollars" for "pos-At that moment, as Saul Macy saw the Lieder," and from the incommuni- one of them became very ill, and around: "I knock too." It took "Take your hoofs away," said the "stuff- But the thought fled quickly as it came. Included the health and around: "I knock too." It took "Take your hoofs away," said the "stuff- But the thought fled quickly as it came. the family physician said he had both preacher and hearers a long ed man to his comrade. And as the lattrenchery; and the guard, though an Saul Macy's head fell on his breast, and his enemy, was no dog to be set upon in that condition to go on with the sermon.

Saul Macy's head fell on his breast, and his strong frame sank down like a sack.

A young man about to change his

Saul Macy's head fell on his breast, and his strong frame sank down like a sack.

"Rather a neat job, Tony," said the lines of his mouth, being eye, and the lines eye, and the lines eye, and the lines eye, and the lin

So, the guard went out of the room, unwould make a last descent in life

Saul Macy could never afterwards account note to Susie. Had he always been a rich man, and set a rich man's estimate on money, he might have hesitated to risk a order for such a sum, when the man might cash it, without returning with a reply. floor above, and then walked under the par-But the moneyed "inventor" was to dis-

Moss Cohen , with a heavy heart, and no light compensation to that sharp-eyed coachman he had found at the railroad des round-hatted driver again holding the ov the setting hen.

First he was driven to a station-house, to make report of what had transpired, com- iz a little this prising the driver's account of what he many a giant. knew concerning the abduction, which was An oath iz a little thing, but it iz

He had stopped, he said, on Thirty-third street, and was told to alight, because a en. gentleman had a "fit." Jumping from his box, he saw Saul Macy lifted out of the carbut deth iz its victory. riage, to the other coach, close by; and then, before he could "say Jack Robison one of the men there got his "head in a constable was once a baby. chancery," and sponged his mouth with dent pride in his own sagneity, "and they didn't chloroform me-nary time! It made

"That's enough," said the curt police functionary. "Nothing can be done here. functionary. "Nothing can be done here sir," he added, addressing Cohen, "Our

Small comfort was in that rejoinder, it betrayed the Son ov God into the caused by the functionary's fears; so Moss | hands of the enemy. Cohen was driven toward the Arsenal, without the countersign. A sentry directed him to the St. Nicholas Hotel, where Gen. | the world to burning. arrived there, he heard so many exaggerat-

Relinquishing hope for Macy that night, tiny, for good or for evil.

watch at Forty-fourth street, when it showed twenty minutes of nine. Fruitless drives abductors of Saul Macy were so much in advance of parsait; even could their track be discovered. There was nothing left, therefore, but to seek that cottage home, to | very silly thing besides. Dismissing the coach at Macy's corner, he approached the cottage, and saw a ligh

in the second-story, where Saul's library extended, front to rear. Satisfied that Sasie al. was waiting up for her husband's return. Cohen thought he would pass through the side gate, and learn if Revere was in safe charge of his nurse, an infantry soldier, honorably discharged, on account his convalescent to the front again. man, a resolute-looking native of New York city, was sitting at the stable-door, from his clothes by that under-sized operator | smoking his pipe; and, to the old gentle him to go out after the rain.

"All seems quiet in this neighborhood, producing annually goods to the

Frank," said the Jew. "Yes, sir just now. There was a hard value of $22,000,000. crowd around that tenemant house about an hour ago, though, "Drunk and asleep, I reckon," answered

Frank, emptying the ashes from his pipe "Are you going to bed, Frank?" enquir-"Think I shall try a roost," said the veteran. "Are you going away, sir?"
"No," replied Cohen, emphatically.

"Are you armed?"

"I've got my six-shooter, inside," and imposture .- N. Y. Sun. "Keep it by you," said Cohen; "You may have visitors before morning. If you should, remember I shall be within call. "I reckon they've had enough lead today," returned Frank. "Three dead or Vegstables, Bilbe, &c., Price 19ets This worl dying rebs were carried into that tenement | with 6 pkts. house, when the crowd got back."

"Why do you say 'rebs,' Frank?" demanded Moss Cohen. "Well, sir," responded the soldier; "To my common sense, there ain't much differwith open mouth, as well as eyes "That's ence. I'd as lieve be shot in front as beauth a bragger!" said be. "You hind; and these fellows shoot at New York beat all the Yanks I every know'd, for talk-long trade." volunteers from our own houses - the derned cowardly bounty-jumpers!" This honest military opinion, from a man who carried a bullet somewhere about his insides," as he said, was not far from Cohen's own conclusions; so he shook hands with Frank, and left a couple eigars for company to the watch, which he sold by the fire, and there'll be letters riz feit assured that veteran would keep, though his convalescent was absent. Then Moss Cohen went back to the cottage, and opened the front door with a pass-key which Saul Macy had given him, that is may be sale of it, in the words of Dr. Johnson, be might go and come, at will, like a memhe might go and come, at will, like a member of the family: the old gentleman being looked upon as such, though he retained his "knite and fork" at a hotel table. his "knife and fork" at a hotel table.

But hardly had the Hebrew, after softly closing the door behind him, proceeded to the parlor, where the gus was turned low, the parlor, where the gas was turned low, than he was startled by a sudden ring of the door-bell. He half-turned to answer in person, when another impression caused never inserted -Chicago Journal him to pause, and reflect.

Macy's ring, even if he had lost his passkey. But if Macy were not there, it might be news from Macy, or it might be trouble for this quiet home. For Moss Cohen had publishers, already made up his mind that the abduction of Saul was the forerunner of some felonious design, which aimed to leave the premises without a master's protection.

In this quiet home. For Moss Cohen had already made up his mind that the abduction of Saul was the forerunner of some felonious design, which aimed to leave the premises without a master's protection.

An extra Cohen for this quiet home. For Moss Cohen had subscriptions to Harpen's Nagazine, Weekley and Bazan, to one address for one year, $7.00; postage free.

An extra Cohen had already made up his mind that the abduction of Saul was the forerunner of some felonious design, which aimed to leave the premises without a master of some premises. While pondering still, he heard Barney's Five Subscribers at $4.00 cach, in one remittance come from Mr. Macy?"

"I am so," responded the visitor.
"There's a note from her husband, and I'm

"I'll take it up," said Barney, putting "I'll take it up," said Barney, putting out his hand.

"Nary time!" demarred the messenger.
"I know my business, and you know yours.
Jes you go and say there's a gentleman wants to see her."

Barney inspected the gentleman's "make up" a moment, and then, with manifest relactance, turned toward the hall.

"I'll take it up," said Barney, putting putting out his hand.

A series of papers under the fille of "The First Century of the Republic," contributed by the most endment American publicates, is now being published the Harren and the century now closing, in every department of our national life.

The Newspapers are not to copy this advertisament without the express orders of Harren and Browness.

Address

"Be lively, young man," ordered the messenger; "I can't stop here all night."

looking for another Smith.—Bridges touch a man with gold and he'll touch a man with gold and h

Shanghai and Canton.
Susie, in trepidation, was about to descen at once, when Edward's mother suggest the propriety of permitting the gentleman to come up with Lis note. "By no means, Susie!" sale Captain Hooper, saddenly roused. "I'll go down and see the man. "But he refused to give Barney the note," said Susie, with concern. "Well, you can't go down to any stranger to-night," said her father, decidedly. "Bar-ney, show the man up."

Barney descended to the parler; and Moss Cohen, who had been observing the messenger closely, from his concealment, waited until he heard boy and man on the

TO BE CONTINUED.

Little Things by Josh Billings. A kross word is a little thing, but it is what stirz up the elephant. A kind word iz a little thing, but pot, resumed his place in the other carriage; it iz just what soothed the sorrows

> An orange peel on the sidewalk iz a little thing, but it haz upset recorded in the great ledger in heav-

A baby iz a wee little thing, but A bornet's sting iz a little thing, chloroform, "But I dacked my nose into but it sends the school boy home this ere muffler," said the man, with evi-

A star is a little thing, but it kan me blamed sick on to my stomach, and that hold this grate world in its arms, A tung iz a little thing, but it alls the universe with trouble,

An egg iz a little thing. But the force are all on duty, and a good many kill-ed. Make your complaint tomorrow, if there's any police left, sir! Our force is

A kiss iz a very little thing, but A kiss iz a very little thing, but

A spark is a little thing, but it where troops were; but could not pass can light the poor man's pipe, or set Wool's head-quarters were. But when he The acorn iz a little thing, but the black bear and his family lives

> A word is a little thing, but one word has been menny a man's des-A penny iz a very little thing but the interest on it from the days of

A minute iz a little thing but it iz long enough to pull a dozen aking ed nearly two hours and a half, and the teeth, or to get married and have your own mother-in-law.

A lap-dog iz a little thing, he iz a Life iz made up ov little things-Life itself iz but a little thing: one breath less then comes the phuner-

The first carpet manufactury established in the United States was in Philadelphia, in 1791. The census of wounds, who intended to accompany of 1810, less than twenty years after. This reported the whole product of the United States in this class of good at 10,000 yards, of which 7,500 yards man's inquiry about Reverg, replied that he were made in Philadelphia. The was to sleep in the cottage that night. census of 1870 shows that there were then 689 carpet factories in the "Bles that woman's soul!" said Cohen United States, employing 13,000 per-"And I must tell her about sons and $13,000,000 capital, paying annually $4,700,000 in wages, and

Mr. Hayes is a very pious patriot. What's become of them?" asked Cohen, He asked some of the churches to pray for his Administration, and then invited Bob Ingersoll, the boasting infidel, to dine with him on Sunday, that they might make merry over the credulity of the poor brethren who had wasted their benedictions upon his "Scuthern policy" of deception

> ROCHESTER SEEDS. Reid's Floral Tribane, abook of 30 pages with Colored Pilates describes 500 varieties of Flowers

REID'S FRESH FLOWER SEEDS including Pansy and Verbena for 25 cts.

the kind in the World."

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of

The MAGAZIKE has attained in its one quarter instro of its long-ago-attained reputation has in-creased as the years has passed, and its future seems as bright if not brighter than at any time reading matter with illustrations to h way to make

It was nearly midnight; and that was not Postage free to all Subscribers in the U. S. $4 00 includes prepayment of U. S. postage by the

"Is your lady at home?" was the interregatory of a tall man, in a loase and shabby paletot, who kept his slouched hat over his eyes, as he spoke.

"Yes, sir." replied Barney. "Are you come from Mr. Macy?"

"I am so," responded the visitor.

"There's a note from her husband, and I'm and a perfect illustrated literary cyclethis priodical a perfect illustrated literary cyclo-pedia. 8vo, Cloth, $3 00, Half Calf, $5 25. Sent

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York,

Thus hastened, the door-boy quickened his -P. J. Pittman keeps Home made